

Cantabile Workshop is for You!

Cantabile means singing! You will have the opportunity to experience:

- ♪ Singing and examining 25+ anthems for choirs of all ages, for all seasons of the church year.
- ♪ Singing to explore vocal and choral techniques.
- ♪ Singing to encourage each other by sharing ideas.
- ♪ Singing to earn 15 hours of continuing education.
- ♪ Singing to the GLORY of God and giving THANKS to God's gift of music.

Feedback From Singers:

- ♪ My choir looks forward to music that I bring back from Mount Carmel.
- ♪ Good balance of sessions and free time. Not rushed at all which is refreshing.
- ♪ I appreciate the high quality of music and variety of styles and difficulty levels.

Dwight Jilek, Guest Clinician

Dwight is the Director of Choral Activities at Bemidji State University. He conducts the Bemidji Choir, Chamber Singers, Damenstimmen Women's Chorus, and Musikanten Men's Chorus. He also teaches conducting, choral literature, and choral arranging.

His doctoral studies in Choral Conducting are from the University of North Texas where he was the conductor of the UNT Concert Choir. In 2016 he received the Outstanding Graduate Conductor award. Dwight earned a Master's Degree in Choral Conducting at Michigan State University where he was the assistant conductor to the Men's Glee Club and State Singers, and director of the Young Men's Chorus for the Community Music School. From 2005-2011 he was the vocal music director at Northfield High School. His Bachelor of Music degree is from Concordia College in Moorhead.

Dr. Jilek has over ten years of church music experience, most recently as the Traditional Choir and Adult Handbell Choir Director at St. Andrew Catholic Parish in Fort Worth, TX. He is an active member of the Minnesota ACDA and is the Repertoire and Resources Coordinator at the collegiate level.

Dwight and his wife, Alyssa, live in Bemidji with their three children.

Cantabile Clinicians

Rolf Anderson, Rikka Estenson, and Kay Hoffland all have professional degrees in music education and performance. Currently, they are teachers, clinicians, and directors of youth, high school, or adult choirs with experience in colleges, public schools, and churches.
