Dear Proclaimers,

Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. Joel 2:32

It rained for days and days and there was a terrific flood. The water rose so high that one man was forced to climb on top of his roof and sat in the rain. As the waters came up higher a man in a rowboat came up to the house and told him to get in. “No thank you, the Lord will save me!” he said, and the man in the rowboat rowed away.

The waters rose to the edge of the roof and still the man sat on the roof until another rowboat came by and another man told him to get in. “No thank you, the Lord will save me!” he said again, and the man rowed away.

The waters covered the house and the man was forced to sit on his chimney as the rain poured down and a helicopter came by and another man urged him to get in or he’ll drown. “No thank you,” the man said again, “The Lord will save me!”

After much begging and pleading the man in the helicopter gave up and flew away. The waters rose above the and the man drowned and went to heaven where he met God.

“Lord, I don’t understand,” he told Him, frustrated, “The waters rose higher and higher and I waited hours for you to save me but you didn’t! Why?” The Lord just shook his head and said, “What are you talking about? I sent two boats and a helicopter!”

In 2014 there were times it felt like we were in a flood with the water rising fast with little hope in sight. Indeed, looking back, we can see how God answered our prayers in so many ways. We ended 2013 with a large deficit which led us to borrow money to cover our regular operating expenses. Maintenance and staffing were cut to minimums as we adopted a balanced budget for 2014. We hoped and prayed for a strong summer. We shared the need with all of you in the spring and summer - and you responded generously in your offerings and donations.

Then, as we completed the summer season, we were blessed with a large estate gift, the largest to date, from a Proclaimer family that had come regularly for years to the Sunday worship services. With the help of this gift along with your support, we were able to repay our line of credit, make our regular mortgage and interest payments, and finish the year on budget. Praise the Lord! A miracle from God.

Another highlight this year was when Pastor Jonathan Swenson accepted the call to stay on as our full time Program Director. In addition to his powerful leadership abilities, he brings with him the creative talent of storytelling through a ministry he founded called Paraphrase Theater. During the winter season he will be able to travel around the country with his faith filled presentations and share the story of Mount Carmel. We are already seeing this fruit with many new families coming to camp because of this partnership.

In 2015 we are launching a three year campaign called Shine to reduce debt, impact lives, and proclaim 'Jesus Only'. To be successful, we will need your prayers and faithful support. It is because of what God is doing through you that great things are already happening at Mount Carmel Ministries, and will continue for years to come.

Pastor Daniel Baker
Executive Director

Remembering Reverend Roy Bloomquist

The Rev. Roy Bloomquist passed away Monday, September 29, 2014 at the age of 95. He served as Director of Mount Carmel Bible Camp, from 1969-1980 and was the Radio Director/Radio Pastor for the Psalm of Life program for 25 years.

Roy and his family labored tirelessly for the camp during some lean years. His wife Marjorie hosted and played piano for worship, son Dan helped on the grounds and played organ, and daughter Lenae (Beth) served as the registrar. Many credit Roy for saving Mount Carmel by holding it together during years of financial crisis at the college.

Roy held to the same commitment as founder Dr. Samuel Miller, that Mount Carmel should be a place of spiritual renewal. We praise God for his faithful ministry and pray for comfort and peace for his family.

Dear Proclaimers,

Greetings from the Board of Trustees, and thank you so much for faithfully supporting Mount Carmel Ministries. Without you we would not be able to “Provide a place for rest, renewal, and recreation where people experience Jesus”.

I hope you are as excited as I am about the direction of Mount Carmel. We are very proud of the work Pastor Dan and the staff have done in 2014 formalizing and modeling our Mission and Values. This is a continued step in the journey of being the best we can be in providing a wonderful environment for people to experience Jesus.

I have had the opportunity to attend numerous events at Mount Carmel over the last year, including 2 weeks of Family Camp. Our values of: Jesus Only / Christ Centered; Christian Community; Hospitality; and Joy are truly evident in all interactions with the staff and fellow participants. As Gracia Grindal said to me a couple of weeks ago, “Mount Carmel is a refuge in the midst of a storm”. I couldn’t agree more.

After seeing people’s lives and families transformed through their time at Mount Carmel, which will have positive generational impact, I am more committed than ever that we need to do everything we can to support and preserve this special place. I can tell you that our Board is totally committed to that end.

To make that possible we engaged in a Capital Campaign – SHINE in 2014. We need to eliminate our debt. We need to continue to enhance programming and opportunities to provide value to more people through this ministry. We need to find more funding sources to support this camp and our staff year-around.

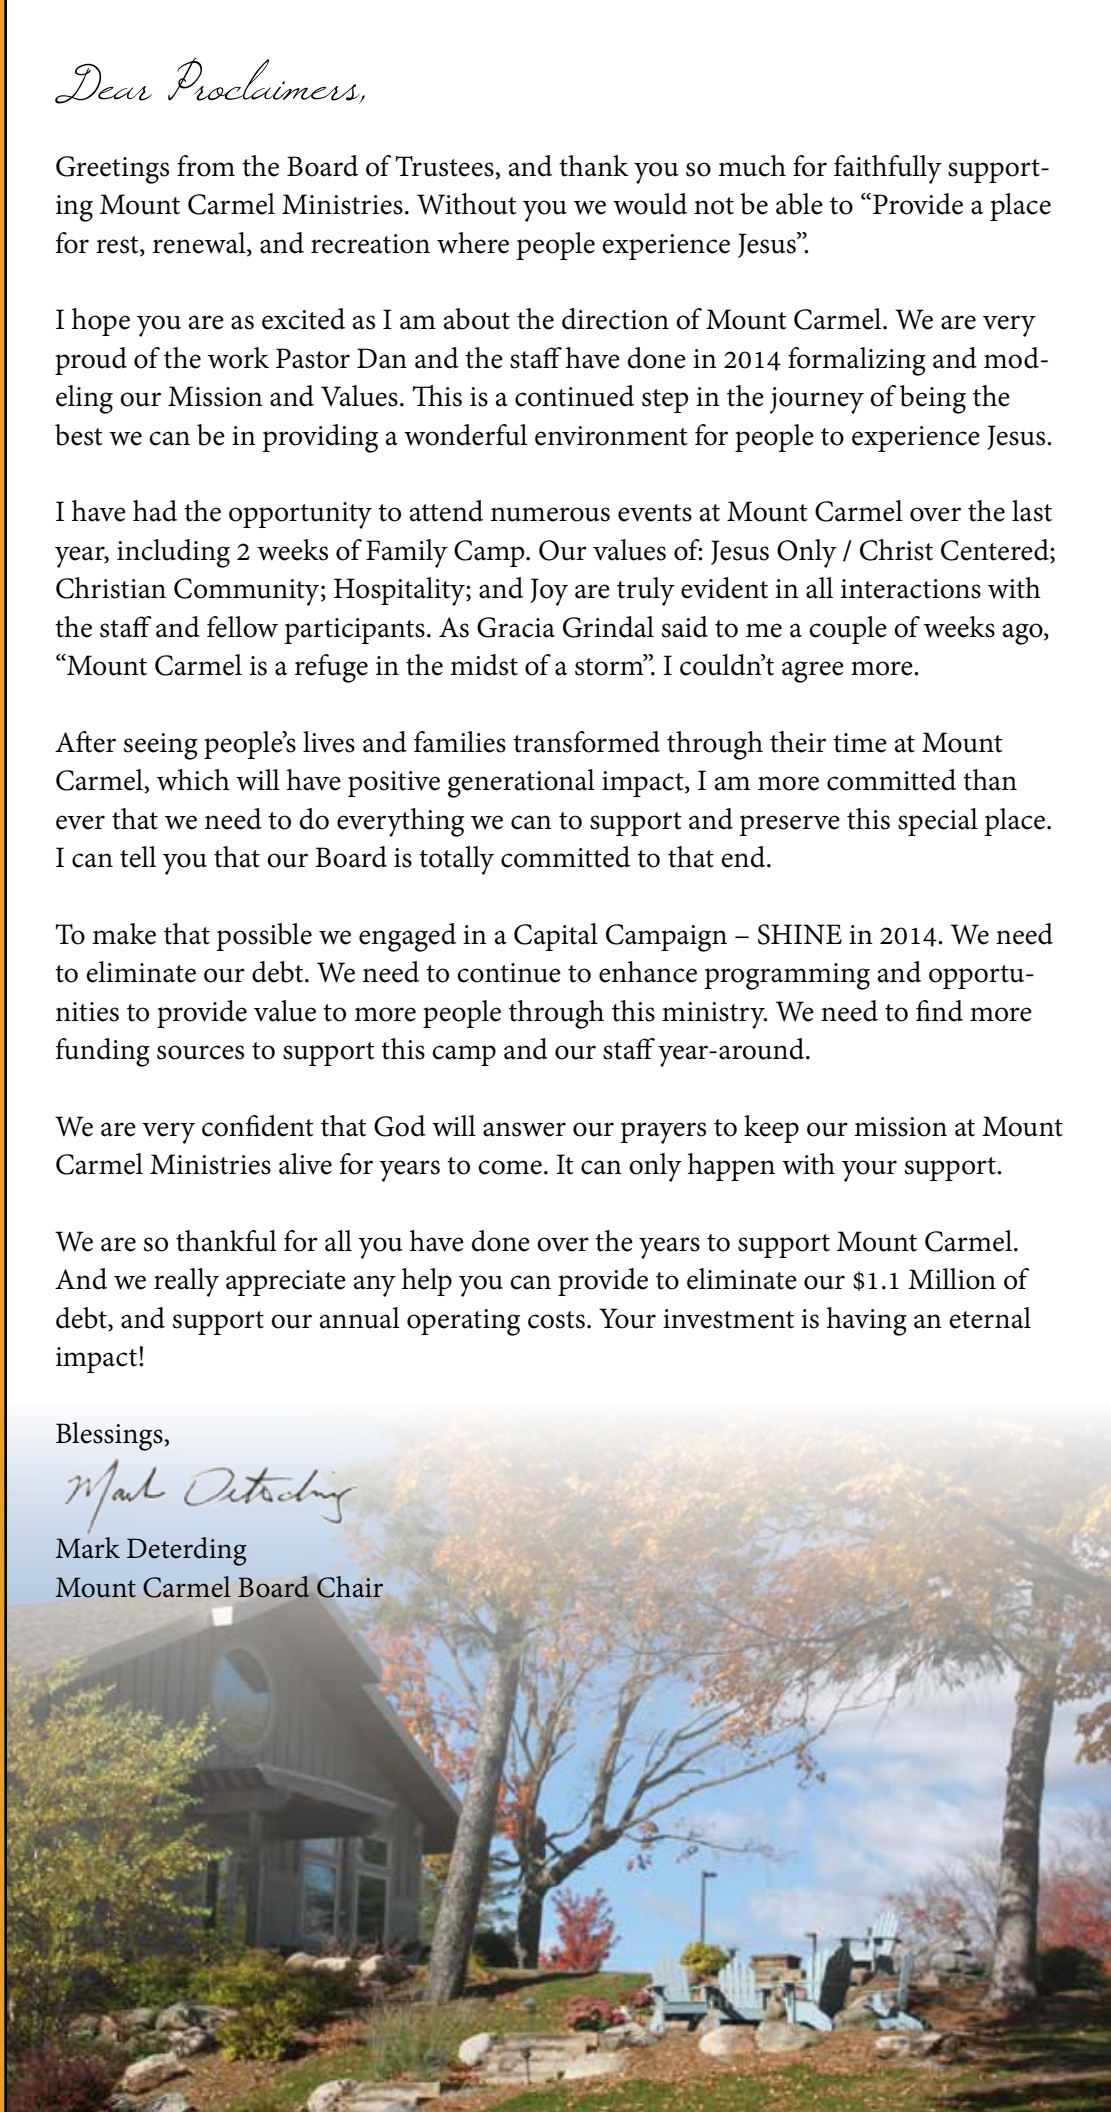

We are very confident that God will answer our prayers to keep our mission at Mount Carmel Ministries alive for years to come. It can only happen with your support.

We are so thankful for all you have done over the years to support Mount Carmel. And we really appreciate any help you can provide to eliminate our $1.1 Million of debt, and support our annual operating costs. Your investment is having an eternal impact!

Blessings,

Mark Deterding
